RE: Assembly Concurrent Resolution 80 (Villapudua) – California Small Business Month - SUPPORT

Dear Assemblymember Villapudua:

On behalf of the associations who represent the interests of the more than 4.1 million small, micro and start-up businesses in the state, we are pleased to Support Assembly Concurrent Resolution (ACR) 80 (Villapudua) that will recognize the importance of small businesses to our state's economy by declaring May as California Small Business Month. Furthermore, this resolution supports the Governor's efforts in promoting small businesses.

As noted by Assemblymember Villapudua, California is home to the most innovative and competitive small businesses in the world, placing our state consistently among the top 10 economies. Small businesses and entrepreneurs have been so successful in driving our economy to where over one-half of our private sector workforce is employed by small businesses.

The organizations listed below applaud Assemblymember Villapudua for bringing his ACR 80 that will declare May as California Small Business Month.

California Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce
California Association for Micro Enterprise Opportunity (CAMEO)
California Black Chamber of Commerce
California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce
California Metals Coalition
Coalition of Small and Disabled Veteran Services
Flasher Barricade Association
